Exquisitely detailed using the mixed materials that became a signature of the creations of Boin-Taburet towards the end of the 19th century.

Established in Paris in 1873 by George Boin and Emile Taburet, the highly regarded Maison Boin-Taburet produced high quality silver and metalwork pieces for Royalty and affluent customers around the world, and contributed to the revival of 18th century styles and forms. They exhibited at the 1889 Exposition Universelle in Paris where they were awarded a gold medal. The firm continued until 1900 when they were renamed Boin & Henry silversmiths.
